

Homework from Virtual Convergence Presentation & Activation #1
Do only what feels right and true for you.

A. Create your intention for your virtual convergence work.

In Person Convergence Intent: The intent of this gathering was to joyfully and ecstatically dance, chant, sing and celebrate the cycle of creation. We joined together in celebration for all that we are creating and have created, honoring the never-ending cycle of creation. We reflected on what has come before, celebrate what is, and danced the dance of creation onward for the evolved fulfillment of the divine design of our individual and co-created destinies.

Intent of Virtual Convergence is to offer the energetic essence of the in person Convergence to as many priestesses and priests as possible in order to uplift our individual & collective creational capacity.

Convergence Puja '09 By Anyaa McAndrew (reworded for a personal experience with the Virtual Convergence) <http://www.goddessontheloose.com>

1. Feel your appreciation for all that the priest or priestess within you has walked through, struggled through, and endured. See the gifts of this being as the fruit of their earth walk. And in silent appreciation, bow in Namaste.....
2. Remembering the ancient past, back beyond the last 5,000 years of Patriarchy, can you energetically bring the feminine forward from that past, and into the light and expansion and radiance between you? Let's simply honor all of Her brilliance through the 40-100 thousand years that the Great Goddess reigned on this planet! Before Patriarchy, way before the Inquisition, way before the subjugation and abuse of women. Bowing in Namaste....
3. Press your hands together and imagine the pressure of the transformation process you have been a part of for the past 5,000 years up to this very day being pressed between your hands. Now gradually let go and allow all of this to be released, bowing in Namaste.....

4. Let's intend to move out all the false and outmoded teachings and conditionings. Honor and let go of all of the roles, archetypes and patterns you have played through time. Bowing in Namaste....
5. Honor all the times and places you have been as the guru and disciple, teacher and student, honoring this and letting it go.
6. Honoring from the past the witch, the warlock, the sorcerer and sorceress, honoring this and letting it go.
7. Now honoring from the past the midwife, the medicine man and medicine woman, the herbalist. Letting it go.
8. Now honoring from the past the oracle, sage, prophet and prophetess.
9. And now from the past honoring the shaman through all cultures.....and letting them go, making way for the new shamanic consciousness.
10. And now honoring from the past the ancient priest and priestess....call the new priest and priestess from the future...bring them both into the present and let them merge into a totally new archetype...dreaming the dream into the NOW.
11. And now honoring the ancient astrologer who knew the stars so masterfully, And calling forth the new astrologers who understand the psychology of the soul. Merge them together in yourself.
12. And now contacting the 3rd dimensional Warrior~Warrioress of Old, fighting for the sake of winning, conquering, bloodletting, and honor them and let them go, Making way for the Spiritual Warrior whose interest is the quest for higher consciousness and spiritual freedom.
13. Feeling into old leadership, that which has been dictatorial, controlling, enslaving, and stagnant....honor it and let it go, so that the new models can Be born and re-born.
14. Let's remember the Old Matriarchal Feminine, and all of her ancient ways, the Full-bodied fertile one who birthed the people, she who was sometimes stuck in her ways, and stagnant. Let us honor the Great Goddess of old, and honor her in each other as we let her go now and make more room for the New Divine Feminine.
15. Honoring the old patriarchal masculine, and his old ways of taming and torturing nature, and the old God, Jehovah, the God of the old testament, as we honor him and let him go, to make way for the New Divine Masculine to step up beside the new Feminine.

16. Honor the old versions of the Divine Couple, Jeshua & Magdalene, the Inca, the Egyptian Pantheon, the Greek and Roman Goddesses and Gods, and as you let them go now, ask them to return renewed for our times, in ways that will guide into this new Age of Sacred Union.

17. Feel the opposites within, how those opposites have confused you, frustrated you, split you apart in the past, and how you have tried to be one or the other, never knowing how to reconcile your own divided natures. Let these opposites go now as you move into a time of both~and, heaven on earth, sacred marriage within.

18. And now let's clear the old misconceptions from your chakras.....feeling a flow from your base chakra and the old tribal consciousness that resides there. Honor this old place within the human experience and let it go...feel a deep primal trust in your belonging to this earth, a relaxing into the mother,

19. Feeling a flow from your second chakra just below your navel...honor your old self-concept, the human experience of I don't belong, let it go...and contact a deep relatedness to humanity.

20. Feeling a flow from your third chakra at your solar plexus....honor the old achiever competition mentality that has existed for so long on this planet, and contact a radiant self-acceptance.

21. Feeling a flow from your heart chakra.....honor the pain that the heart has experienced through all time, as it only wants us to just get along together. Let that pain go now with a sound.....

23. Feeling a flow from your throat chakra.....honor all the times you were persecuted for speaking your truth, and let that pain go with a sound....

24. Feeling a flow from your third eye chakra just above & between your eyebrows.....honor all the times your vision was clouded by doubt and confusion and somebody else's agenda or vision for you.....all the way back through time....and let that go with a sound. Visualize a clear cloudless day in your 3rd eye.

25. And finally, feeling a flow from your crown chakra arching up.....honor the religions of the world and their intent to mediate for you, to speak for you to God~dess, to interpret for you to Spirit, to intercede for you to the Universe, the cap off your crown chakra that is all of the past religious indoctrination you ever received, and let it goooooo with a sound up and out. Call in Spirit now as you continue to dance out all the old, crusty ancient dark energies from our collective past and dance to get ready for conscious creative focus.....

Also there are multiple layers to any clearing.

- Earth/physical
- Water/emotional/feeling
- Air/mental/vibrational
- Fire/action/energy
- Spiritual/connection to the Divine throughout time & space
- Old Karma, Vows, Contracts, & Agreements

D. Clearing old shadow pieces through Dance (if you need a musical suggestion try James Asher Feet In the Soil - can find on I-Tunes)

You can lump some of these together into a couple dances if that feels right to you.

- a. Competition
- b. Matriarchy
- c. Patriarchy
- d. Priest
- e. Priestess
- f. Tears in the Web - feeling rejected, left out, jealous, old under currents
- g. Judgment of self & others
- h. Old roles of masculine & feminine
- i. Or definitions like “feelings are just feminine & leadership is masculine”
- j. Release longing
- k. Victim energy
- l. Ego control
- m. Anything else

High Priestess Sharon Shreve found this video on youtube and suggested it for the convergence. It didn't work technologically to play it there but it is helpful to watch if you feel the need to do more burning times type Priest/ess clearing. Be sure to clear your energy from both the perspective of the victim and those that did the burning. All of us have had experience on both sides of the matrix. http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RntnpYTfpSc&feature=PlayList&p=0680034164E777B3&playnext=1&playnext\_from=PL&index=27

Once you feel like you have done the clearing necessary please begin noticing where your creational focus is going.

Are you focused on what it you choose to bring in? Or is all your energy going to what you are not getting? Really pay attention here and consistently turn your focus back toward what you choose to create.

Sending you much creational love, Lisa
